

SOCIAL EVENTS AND PERSONAL MENTION

SOCIETY WILL ATTEND

PRETTY LAWN PARTY

Early Summer Affair to be Held on Campus of Richmond College.

CARNIVAL AT GINTER PARK

Charity Function This Afternoon for Benefit of Pine Camp—Moonlight To-Night to Dutch Gap—Art Club Students Will Receive.

One of the most charming early summer affairs will be the big lawn party that will be given under the auspices of the Alumnae Association of Miss Ellett's School. This big afternoon entertainment will take place on Thursday evening on the campus of Richmond College, and smart society will be out in force to attend it. There will be an afternoon entertainment for the children, and the evening hours will be from 8 to 11 o'clock. Japanese lanterns, bright-colored lights and numerous rustic tables scattered about under the trees will form a very attractive and pleasing background, and there will be a musical program, and light refreshments served throughout the evening.

The association includes in its membership some of the most prominent society girls and matrons of the city, and the committee in charge of the lawn party has planned a novel entertainment.

Home From College.

Miss Katharine Roy Gordon has returned from Lynchburg, where she has been attending college this session, and is now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Gordon, on East Franklin Street. Miss Gordon has recently received her A. B. degree from the Randolph-Macon Woman's College.

Portsmouth Wedding.

Says the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot: "A beautiful wedding was solemnized on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Franklin Williams, in North Street, Portsmouth, when their daughter, Miss Emma Williams, was married to Mr. William Arthur Condit, of Richmond, formerly of Portsmouth. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Arthur C. Thomson, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, and was followed by a brilliant reception. The house was decorated with banks of palms, baskets of Easter lilies and garlands of pink rambler roses.

"The ceremony took place before an improvised altar of white and pink flowers and lighted with candles, over which was an arch decorated with pink roses.

"The rooms were lighted with quantities of rose-shaded candles and electric lights, and in the hall garlands of Southern smilax and banks of palms were used.

"An orchestra furnished music for the wedding march and during the reception. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a hand-some gown of white satin with a bodice of ivory silk lace with pearl embroidery trimming. The skirt was draped and made with a long train, and had a tulle of tulle embroidered in pearls. Her tulle veil was arranged with orange blossoms, and draped from a chaplet of lace and tulle, and she carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

"Mrs. Eugene Norfleet Davis, of Aberdeen, Miss., a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of cream shadow lace over pink chiffon with a tulle of pink tulle, and carried pink sweet peas.

"Miss Irma Fulkner was her maid of honor. She wore a gown of pink tulle with a bodice and tulle, and carried pink sweet peas. An aisle was formed for the bridal party by two little ribbons, Miss Louise Hensell and Miss Louise Shepherd. They were quaintly dressed in French style, hand-embroidered, and carried little bunches of pink rose buds.

"Mr. Condit had as his best man his brother, Louis Condit, of Boonton, N. J. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held, and later on the evening Mr. and Mrs. Condit left for an extended trip North, the conclusion of which they will make their home in Richmond.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, of New York; Judge and Mrs. J. Raymond Salmon, Misses Lillian and Alice Condit and Louis O. Condit, of New Jersey; Harry Thompson, of Glen Ridge, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weber, of Richmond; Miss Lullie D. Barham, of Newsum; Thomas Whitaker, of Atlanta, Ga.; W. T. Gentry, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Davis and William Davis, of Aberdeen, Miss.; Charles P. Harris and J. P. Orth, of Richmond.

Ensign Perrell Here. Robert White Perrell, ensign, United States Navy, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Perrell, at their home, 1714 Grove Avenue. Ensign Perrell has just graduated from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, where he stood fourth in his class. He will be attached to the North Dakota at Vera Cruz after July 1.

Attending Finals. Among the Richmond girls who will leave town to-morrow to attend finals at Wm. Byrd High School, near Orange, are Misses Katherine Valentine, Elizabeth Kelley, Katherine Branch and Helen and Nicolette Johnson. Miss Nicolette Johnson and Miss Elizabeth Kelley will also attend the final exams at the Virginia Military Institute the latter part of this month, as will Miss Sarah Oppenheimer, Miss Martha Chambers, Miss Evelyn Byrd Warwick and Miss Emma Conquest, of this city.

Approaching Marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Williams Marshall, formerly of this city, but now of Jacksonville, Fla., have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Louise Martin, to David C. Frost. The ceremony will take place on Thursday evening at the residence of the bride's parents in Jacksonville.

Marriage Announced. The marriage of Miss Mable Florence Foxworth, of Little Rock, Ark., and J. Cooper Lacy, United States Navy, which was celebrated at Tacoma, Wash., on April 29, has recently been announced. Owing to the sudden departure of the groom for Mexican waters, the wedding was very quiet, and only attended by a few intimate friends. The groom is a son of James B. Lacy, of this city, and has many relatives and friends in this city.

Myers-Wallace. Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Philip Wallace, of this city, announce the marriage of their daughter, Ayle Maudie, to Edward J. Myers. The wedding was celebrated on the afternoon of Saturday, June 6, at 4 o'clock, and the Rev.

Father Kaup, of Sacred Heart Cathedral, officiated.

Whitmore-Blount.

The marriage of Miss Mary Hyslop Blount, daughter of Mrs. Mollie C. Blount, of this city, and Harry Lee Whitmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Whitmore, of Henderson, N. C., was celebrated yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock in the home of the bride, 2507 Floyd Avenue. The Rev. William Lockhart performed the ceremony, and the parlor was prettily decorated in palms, ferns and shaded candles. Miss Anna Taylor played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin as a processional, and Eleanor Bass and Rosalie Davis held the ribbons, which formed an aisle through which the bridal party passed to the altar.

The bride entered with her maid of honor, Miss Lucy Blount, and wore a going-away gown of dark blue silk with a hat to match and a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. They were met at the altar by the groom and his brother, Roy F. Whitmore, of Henderson, N. C., who was best man. Miss Blount wore a costume of white lace and carried a tulle of white lace. The ribbon girls wore white lace frocks with pink sashes.

Following a Northern honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore will be at home at 3291 Grove Avenue, Richmond.

Summer Carnival.

An interesting charity function of this afternoon and evening will be the "Summer Carnival" in Ginter Park, given under the auspices of the Ginter Park Woman's Club for the benefit of Pine Camp. The entertainment which was postponed from Friday on account of the weather, will be held in the grounds of the home of Mrs. Edwin T. Sampson, Ginter Park, and the hours will be from 5 to 10 o'clock. All sorts of novel features for the program have been arranged, and supper will be served at the grounds.

Piano Recital.

Pupils Give Play.

The pupils of Miss Campbell's School entertained a large company of their friends on Friday afternoon at the closing exercises of their school, when they presented most pleasingly Dickens' "Christmas Carol." Miss Nannie Carlington, Campbell, Miss Virginia Page Martin, Misses Elizabeth and Maude Randolph Williams, Olea Dance, Bland G. Whittier, Hankins, Catherine Watkins, Helen Perdue and Grace Lorraine took part in the play. Those who assisted in the school were Nannie C. Campbell, Virginia Page Martin, Helen Sidney Perdue, Maude Hankins, Bland G. Whittier, Olea Caroline Dance and Catherine Montague Watkins.

Moonlight to Dutch Gap. The moonlight excursion to Dutch Gap this evening, under the direction of St. John's Circle of King's Daughters, for the benefit of the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital, promises to be a delightful and pleasing affair.

Arrangements have been made to hold the boat until 8:30 o'clock, thus giving an opportunity for any who so desire to see the periodical of the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital, which will play during the evening, and refreshments will be served en route.

At the Art Club.

There will be no lecture at the Art Club of Richmond this afternoon, as the weekly lectures of the season have been concluded for this year, but to see the paintings of the home of Mrs. Edwin T. Sampson, Ginter Park, and all students are invited to receive tea will be poured and the reception will last from 4 to 7 o'clock. The exhibition of the students' work at the club continues to draw interesting gatherings.
